

Rafaël NEDZYNSKI
General Secretary of the FGTA-FO

Born in Brussels, on February 27, 1953.

Secretary General of the FGTA-FO (Fédération générale des travailleurs de l'alimentation, des tabacs et des activités annexes Force Ouvrière) - Food, agriculture, food industry, tobacco, hotels, restaurants and food retail union in France.

He is also Executive Committee member of the FO (Force Ouvrière) confederation.

He is member of the Presidium (Management committee) of EFFAT (European federation for food, agriculture and tourism) and Executive committee member of the IUF (International Union of Food workers).

Until 1997, he was the Federal Secretary of the FGTA-FO in charge of the hotel, restaurant and catering sectors.

Until 1991, he was the director of the IDESC (Institut pour le développement économique, social et culturel).

He had previously also worked as Assistant to the International department of the FO confederation.

Until 1985, we worked as a researcher at the European Trade Union Institute.